

La Marti (Martina Magionami) Florentine pop-folk singer-songwriter in precarious balance between irony and melancholy tells stories, shares emotions and makes you travel with your imagination, with a delicate voice, careful attention to the acoustic guitar and lyrics in both Italian and English.

In the EP "Anime Fragili" (2024) you can listen to "Tornerà", one of the 50 songs selected for the Under 35 Award by Amnesty International - Voci Per La Libertà (2024) and "Distratta", which won the International Music Video Award in the Best Animation Music Video category (session of October 2024).

Over the years she performed live especially in Tuscany; among the most recent events we have the Buskers Festival of San Carlo-San Vincenzo (LI), the Florence Suona Contest (2024), moreover she opened the first edition of Prato del Sofar Sounds Italy (June 2022). In August 2024 she performed in Dublin and Galway for some solo acoustic opening concerts, also experienced busking and took part in open mic events (Grafton Street, St Stephen's Green, Fibber Magees, Sin É, Roisin Dubh and OI'55 Pub).

Available for streaming: "From Afar" (single 2024), "Anime Fragili" (Ep 2024), "LOOP" (Ep 2023), and various singles such as "Isola", "Buonanotte di un invisibile", "Arma Subdola", "L'autostoppista", "The Virgin's Fountain", "One place in mind", "La realtà dei sogni (first single with videoclip - 2016) and many others.

MUSIC:

<https://www.lamartimusic.com/en/la-mia-musica>

LINKS TO SOCIAL PAGES:

<https://linktr.ee/lamartimusic>

PRESS:

<https://www.lamartimusic.com/en/news>

